BOLSA CHICA
ECOLOGICAL CONSERVANCY

FIELD TRIP

Join us on Sunday, March 3rd, 2024
@ 10:00 AM - 12:00: PM

3842 Warner Avenue, Huntington Beach, CA 92648

Connect with nature by joining us in a guided tour at the Bolsa Chica Ecological Reserve! You and your child will get to experience the wetlands first-hand with an Expert Guide. This tour will cover topics on wetland ecology, biology, and the local history. Learn how we can maintain our watersheds, wetlands, and oceans, and how we are all connected to our natural resources. Visit to the Nature Center after.

Directions: There are two parking lots for the reserve. Parking is free, however please keep in mind that parking in these lots fills up quickly on weekends. There is additional parking in a public lot across from the North Parking Lot near the Huntington Beach Fire Station.

North Parking. 3842 Warner Avenue Huntington Beach, CA 92647 The Bolsa Chica Conservancy Interpretive Center is located at the North Lot

South Parking. 18000 Pacific Coast Highway Huntington Beach, CA 92647
